

Daily Express

26th October 2010

Prince Andrew's remarkable friendship with comely model Alexandra Escat continues apace. The 25-year-old was dubbed "the totty on the yacht" when she was spotted rubbing sun lotion onto Airmiles Andy's back during a Sardinian cruise. She was then seen lunching with PR guru Max Clifford, promoting speculation that she could spill the beans on the friendship, causing Andrew to implore her to keep shtum. Yet earlier this month she was invited to Buckingham palace for an intimate dinner with Andrew, 50.

The evening wasn't a one-off. Alexandra was in London this weekend for an evening of Iranian music in Bloomsbury held by Toos Foundation charity founder Jamileh Kharrazi.

