

Daily Mail

26th October 2010

Alexandra, who first met Prince Andrew, 50, in August on a yacht in the Mediterranean, was hoping the Prince just back from a Far East trip would be able to escort her to an Iranian cultural evening, organised by the Toos Foundation, at Logan Hall in Central London. In the event, Alexandra and her pal Jamileh Kharrazi had to make do with barrister Clifford Allison, who narrated part of the evening on stage.

