

The traditional Iranian New Year and the Toos Foundation

Ms Jamileh Kharrazi the founder of the Toos Foundation, in a brief interview with the Persian Weekly and in the celebration event of Zhaleh Esfahani, emphasised that the Toos Foundation has various programmes in line with the upcoming Iranian New Year and other traditional celebrations, which will introduce shortly. These programmes will take place in London, and we at the Toos Foundation, together with all those who assist us in putting such programmes together take all necessary efforts to ensure that they are presented with the utmost quality. She did not go into details and left further briefings to a later date.
