Jamileh Kharrazi, a guest in Los Angeles

Mr. Humayun Khusravi, a musician who has always something to say, was the host to Ms. Jamileh Kharrazi, a famous artist and the founder of the Toos foundation in London, on Wednesday 3rd of March 2010. Jamileh Kharrazi, who is a reputable ballerina of the Rudaki theatre and has a sparkling record in the fields of arts, after the establishment of the Toos foundation, had arranged five successful consecutive programmes in a professional manner in London, which attracted the attentions of many critics.

Mr. Khusravi, in a critical view on the last programme set by the Toos foundation in London, which was in relation with the Iranian Classical music and the influence of the western music on the Iranian musicians, started with the appearance of the Opera and Ballet and the commandment of Mr. Dihlavi and Evelyn Baghcheban, which was set with the presence of Dr. Khushnam, Pari Samar, Pari Zangeneh, Mario Taqqadusi and Bihzad, and conducted with an orchestra, following with a speech by Mrs. Nikzad. This was welcomed and received a warm reception by the viewers of the Andisheh T.V.

This programme can be viewed on Andisheh T.V. every Wednesdays at 18.00.
